Mednarodna konferenca IIA-Slovenskega inštituta INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE OF IIA SLOVENIA, VIRTUAL EVENT

18. SEPTEMBER 2020 / 18TH SEPTEMBER 2020

Join us for The IIA Slovenia VIRTUAL National Conference

Join us for IIA Slovenia's 2020 VIRTUAL National Conference, which will be held 18- September. This educational journey will be rich with insights for internal auditors at every level and across all industries.

This year's theme is in accordance with entering a new decade: Internal Audit at a Crossroad.

Internal audit is facing greater demands ("challenges"), caused by rapid and sudden changes in all aspects of organization's operations. That is why it is even more important, that internal auditors, as so called "third line of defence", cooperate with first and second line of defence and strengthen their knowledge and skills to add value to organizations. This year's program includes international as well as Slovene professionals. Topics are diverse, but each is meant to open new horizons in internal audit functions.

We are please to invite your IIA Institute to join us as partners of the virtual 9th International Conference IIA - Slovenian Institute, where we expect up to 200 participants from Slovenia and other IIA institutes from different countries.

As a partner, we have prepared special benefits for you:

- The participation fee for your members IIA Institute is EUR 75.00 instead of EUR 99.00
- Free registration fee for one representative of the partner organization.
- Publication between partners on the conference website.

In the wake of collaboration, we will be pleased if your IIA Institute will recommend the conference to your members by:

- provide members directly with at least three conference announcements / newsletters;
- publish news about the conference on social networks.

For this purpose, we will provide for your Members the news about the conference, in which we will inform you about the program, details about the lecture and the lecturers, and any additions.

We are very pleased to announce that the participation has been confirmed by
